

ANZAC Day

I like the poppies when they bloom, as a hush falls.
There is no cracking or booms
From the Aussies or Kiwis as they loom
With the feeling of doom and gloom.
I like the poppies to remember all,
I like that they were tall and brave
And they gave their lives on that day.

