

Guess What?

My teacher is a nightmare
She doesn't understand.
She says I'm never focused
And live in 'lala' land.

If she made the day more fun
I wouldn't be so bored
When I ask if we can play outside
My question is ignored.

She makes us do maths every day
Then she makes us write,
I can't believe she thinks it's cool
She can't be very bright.

"Samuel, have you started yet?
Animals are the theme."
I remembered when Mum saw a rat
And let out a mighty scream.

I can't believe I wrote one,
It was really kind of fun.
Now I've got a new idea -
I'm writing another one.

Mum gave me more of a fright than the rat!
