

Granny And The Crocodile

Although folk said she was getting old
Granny still felt brave and bold.
She said, "I'm going to bungy jump
The very idea has me pumped.
I fancy leaping into space."
She had a staunch look on her face.
Granny jumped, "HERE I goooooo!"
Then she saw him - waiting below.
One enormous, scary crocodile
Looking up at her with a toothy smile.
Croc looked hungry! He began to moan,
Granny roared, "Kids, grab my phone,
Record me as I kiss his nose,
And tickle him under his scaly toes."
Croc laughed out loud, then declared,
"That Granny of yours..... sure is weird."

Look out Granny!

There's a hungry looking crocodile watching you.

Written for the children in years 2/3 at Whatawhata School after we had a fun time writing a poem together.