

Mixed Up Words

I was happily singing my favourite song -
I thought I knew all the words,
Until my sister and her friend walked in
Laughing at what they'd heard.
"Do you know what you are singing about?"
"Yes, they're on a shidoo!"
"On a shidoo? How embarrassing,
The words are - honest you do."

Do you ever sing along to a song, then feel silly when you find out you've been singing the wrong words all the time?

What song have you misheard the words to?

Here are a few others:

"We built this city on sausage rolls."

Should be

"We built this city on rock'n'roll."

"Dancing queen, feel the beat from the tangerine".

Should be

"Dancing queen, feel the beat from the tambourine."

"Sweet dreams are made of cheese".

Should be

"Sweet dreams are made of these."
