

WHAT'S THAT IN MY BATH?

By Judi Billcliff

Help me, help me, someone please
I feel something touching my knees.
There's a shark in my bath,
There's a shark in my bath,
Help me please, there's a shark in my bath!

I thought sharks swam in the ocean,
I thought sharks swam in the sea,
But I think one's swimming in my bath,
Will someone please help me?

Help me, help me, someone please
I can feel something nibbling my knees.
There's a shark in my bath,
There's a shark in my bath,
Help me please, there's a shark in my bath.

I thought sharks swam in the ocean,
I thought sharks swam in the sea,
But I know there's a shark in my bath -
And I think it's circling me.

Help me, help me, someone please
I can feel some nobbly knees.
There's a child in my bath,
There's a child in my bath,
Help me please, there's a child in my bath.....

Well there WAS a child in my bath.....

There's A Monster In My Bedroom by Judi Billcliff

There's a monster in my bedroom,
There's a monster under my bed.
There's a monster in my bedroom -
Look! It's standing on its head.

There's a monster in my bedroom,
There's a monster on the floor.
There's a monster in my bedroom -
Listen! Did you hear it roar?

There's a monster in my bedroom
It's eating all my food,
It's finished off my muesli bar,
That monster's very rude!

I need to escape from my bedroom -
I'm ready, one....two....three,
My feet must not touch the floor
Or that monster might get me!

I leap onto the bookcase,
I leap onto the chair,
I leap onto a pile of clothes -
Look! I'm leaping everywhere.

One last jump. I made it,
I escape out through the door.
Now that monster's gone to bed -
It can't get me any more.
