

Cleaning Addiction by Judi Billcliff

We've come out of lockdown,
We've come out of lockdown,
And I'm not scared,
No, I'm not scared.
Sanitiser in my bag
And wet wipes too,
I use them after touching things
And going to the loo.
I use them on the bathroom taps
And handles of the door,
I use them on everything
That I drop on the floor.
(But not my lunch!)
I wipe down the tables
I wipe down my chair,
I'm always busy wiping
What seems like everywhere!
I tried to wipe my brother,
My sister and the cat,
But Mum saw me doing it
And said, "We need to chat!"
I tried to clean my Granny
And even Grandad too.
Now I can't stop cleaning
And I'm coming after you!
